TCU Football Spring Guide

Gary Patterson

- Dean of Mountain West Conference Coaches
- Has five 10-win seasons in the last seven years, including four 11-win campaigns in the past six seasons (no other coach in TCU history has more than two 10-win campaigns)
- Has a 73-27 record (.730), ranking 10th among active head coaches in the FBS
- The 73 wins place third on TCU's career victory list, just one shy of tying Abe Martin (74, 1953-66) for second place
- The best winning percentage (.730) of any head coach in TCU history through 100 games
- Taken part in 10 bowl games over the last 11 seasons at TCU
- A 5-3 bowl record as a head coach and 7-3 overall mark during his time on campus
- Has coached the Horned Frogs to four straight bowl victories for the first time in TCU history
- TCU has won four conference titles with him on staff in addition to posting six of the school's 10 10-win seasons
- A 5-2 record in the last seven games versus Big 12 opponents
- An 11-3 mark in the last 14 contests against teams from conferences with automatic BCS bids (15-8 since his arrival in 1998)
- Has coached 93 All-Conference selections, six All-Americans, 10 Freshman All-Americans and one Academic All-American
- 16 players drafted with 36 in NFL camps
- 2002 Conference USA Coach of the Year and 2005 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year

JUST TCU, THANK YOU

Though the TCU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is a proud and integral part of Texas Christian University, it desires to be recognized by the media simply as TCU (acronym only).

In all sports-related media references, we respectfully urge that the university's teams be identified with an appropriate appellation — TCU. In subsequent references of the same presentation, the team may be referred to by nickname — Horned Frogs. A shorter version of the nickname, Frogs, is acceptable in later usage.

COMING UP BIG

• The Frogs are 11-3 in their last 14 games against teams from conferences with automatic BCS bids.
• Dating back to 2005, TCU is 5-2 in its last seven contests against Big 12 opponents.
• Since 2000, TCU's 12 wins over teams from conferences with automatic BCS bids are fourth nationally. Only Utah (16), Fresno State (14) and Navy (13) are ahead of the Frogs.
• Since Gary Patterson arrived at TCU as defensive coordinator in 1998, the Frogs are 15-8 versus teams from leagues with automatic BCS bids.
• Beginning with a season-opening victory at Oklahoma in 2005 and concluding with a win over Baylor in 2007, TCU put together five straight triumphs over Big 12 opponents. At the time, that run of five straight victories over Big 12 foes trailed only Oklahoma (eight).
• From 2005-07, the Frogs were 5-1 in a stretch with six out of 27 games against Big 12 competition. TCU allowed an average of just 13.0 points in that span.
• In a period of 15 games (Sept. 3, 2005 - Sept. 16, 2006), TCU was 4-0 against the Big 12. Only Texas, Texas Tech, Oklahoma and Colorado won more games against Big 12 opponents in that stretch.
• Included below are TCU's games versus BCS opponents since 1998:

THE BCS

• TCU was 11th in the final 2008 BCS standings.
• The Frogs (28) are second behind only Boise State (34) for most appearances in the BCS standings by a school playing in a conference without an automatic BCS bid.
• If the current BCS rules were in effect in 2005, TCU would have been in a BCS bowl. The Frogs were ahead of automatic qualifier Florida State.

BEST HOME RECORDS SINCE 2003

• TCU ranks sixth in home record over the last six seasons:

	Team	W-L	Pct.
1.	Boise State	38-1	.974
2.	Oklahoma	37-1	.974 (a 17-10 loss to TCU, 2005)

2009 HORNED FROG NOTES

FROG HONOR ROLL

FROGS DOMINATE ALL-MWC TEAM

• TCU topped all league members with a school-record 18 players earning All-Mountain West Conference honors in 2008.
• Additionally, Horned Frog defensive end Jerry Hughes was named the MWC Defensive Player of the Year.
• First-team selections included four defensive starters in Hughes (a unanimous pick), linebackers Robert Henson and Jason Phillips and safety Stephen Hodge. Center Blake Schlueter represented the offense, while Jeremy Kerley was the return specialist. Phillips is the first defensive player in MWC history to be first- or second-team all-conference in four consecutive seasons.
• Second-team honorees included four more defensive starters: safety Steven Coleman, nose tackle Cody Moore, defensive end Matt Panfil and cornerback Rafael Priest. Offensive tackle Marshall Newhouse was also a second-team pick.
• TCU's seven honorable-mention selections included return specialist Aaron Brown, offensive tackle Marcus Cannon, quarterback Andy Dalton, punter Anson Kelton, cornerback Nick Sanders, defensive tackle James Vess and wide receiver Jimmy Young.

FROGS AS ALL-AMERICANS

• Jerry Hughes, DE - First-team All-American, Walter Camp Football Foundation, Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News, Associated Press, ESPN.com, SI.com, CollegeFootballNews.com and Rivals.com.

FROGS AND WEEKLY HONORS

• Jerry Hughes, DE - MWC Defensive POTW (Aug. 30 - New Mexico)
• Matt Panfil, DE - MWC Defensive POTW (Sept. 13 - Stanford)
• Marcus Jackson, QB - MWC Offensive POTW (Oct. 4 - San Diego State)
• Daryl Washington, LB - MWC Defensive POTW (Oct. 11 - Colorado State)
• Anson Kelton, P - MWC Special Teams POTW (Oct. 11 - Colorado State)
• Jerry Hughes, DE - MWC Defensive POTW (Oct. 16 - BYU)
• Jimmy Young, WR - MWC Offensive POTW (Oct. 25 - Wyoming)
• Jerry Hughes, DE - MWC Defensive POTW (Nov. 1 - UNLV)

FROGS AND NATIONAL HONORS

• Drew Combs, PK - Rudy Award winner
• Jerry Hughes, DE - Walter Camp Football Foundation National Defensive Player of the Week (Oct. 16 - BYU)
• Jerry Hughes, DE - FWAA/Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week (Oct. 16 - BYU)
• TCU - Tostitos Fiesta Bowl National Team of the Week (Oct. 16 - BYU)

FROGS AS FINALISTS FOR NATIONAL AWARDS

• Dick Bumpas, Defensive Coordinator - Broyles Award (finalist)
• Ross Evans, PK - Lou Groza Award (semifinalist)
• Jerry Hughes, DE - Bronko Nagurski Trophy (finalist), Ted Hendricks Award (finalist), Walter Camp Player to Watch
• Gary Patterson, Head Coach - George Munger Award (semifinalist)

FROGS AND ACADEMIC HONORS

• Bart Johnson, WR - First-team Academic All-District, ESPN The Magazine
• Shae Reagan, TE - First-team Academic All-District, ESPN The Magazine

THE "W" COLUMN

• Under head coach Gary Patterson, TCU has won 10 games five times in the last seven seasons. Included in that total are four 11-win campaigns (2003, 2005, 2006, 2008) in the past six years.
• No other coach in TCU history has more than two 10-win campaigns.
• Since coming to TCU as defensive coordinator in 1998, Patterson has taken part in six 10-win seasons. Before his arrival on campus, TCU had only four 10-win campaigns in its history.

WINNING CLASSES

• Last year's 11-2 record enabled the 2008 seniors to graduate as the winningest class in TCU history at 41 victories.
• Another 11-win campaign this fall would allow this year's seniors to tie that mark.
• Last season's senior class surpassed the win total from the 1932-35 period for the most victories over a four-year stretch at TCU. The 1935 team won the national championship. Since freshmen weren't eligible to play in the 1930s, the 2008 seniors surpassed the previous-best win total for a class set in 2006:

4-year period	Wins
1. 2005-08	41
2. 1932-35	40
3. 1933-36	39
4. 2003-06	38
1930-33	38

GOING BOWLING

• Since head coach Gary Patterson arrived at TCU as defensive coordinator in 1998, TCU has made 10 bowl appearances in 11 seasons.
• The Frogs are one of only 14 teams to appear in at least 10 bowl games the last 11 seasons:

11 - Florida, Florida State, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Texas, Virginia Tech
10 - TCU, Boston College, Miami (Fla.), Ohio State, Oklahoma, Oregon, Southern Miss, Wisconsin

• TCU is one of seven teams with a current bowl winning streak of at least four games:

8 - Utah
5 - Oregon State, Texas
4 - TCU, Cal, LSU, West Virginia

• The Frogs have won four bowl games in a row for the first time in their history:

2005 Houston Bowl - TCU 27, Iowa State 24
2006 Poinsettia Bowl - TCU 37, Northern Illinois 7
2007 Texas Bowl - TCU 20, Houston 13
2008 Poinsettia Bowl - TCU 17, Boise State 16

SETTING THE PACE

• In 2008, TCU set single-season school records for points scored (437) and touchdowns (56).
• TCU led the nation in time of possession (35:10). The Horned Frogs were 12th nationally in team rushing (220.2 yards per game) despite not having a player among the top 96 individually.
• The 220.2 yards per game rushing was the highest total at TCU since 2000 (275.6), LaDainian Tomlinson's senior season.
• The Frogs were second in the Mountain West Conference and 24th nationally in total offense (421.3 yards per game).
• TCU's average of 421.3 yards per game was its best mark since 2004 (430.7).
• The Frogs totaled at least 410 yards of offense in nine of 13 games.
• TCU was third in the MWC and 21st nationally in scoring (33.6 points per game).
• TCU scored in 41 of 52 quarters (78.8 percent). Only 13 teams nationally scored in a higher percentage of quarters than the Frogs.

THE SIGNAL CALLER

• All 11 of Andy Dalton's touchdown passes in 2008 came in the final six contests after he returned from a two-game injury absence:

Period	Comp.-Att.-Int.	Pct.	Yds.	TD	Avg./Game
First 5 games	79-138-2	57.2	818	0	163.6
Last 6 games	103-169-3	60.9	1,424	11	237.3
Totals	182-307-5	59.3	2,242	11	203.8

• Dalton's 11 touchdown passes in the final six games surpassed his 2007 season total of 10.
• In his last two home games, Dalton was 37-of-49 (75.5 percent) for 655 yards with six touchdowns and no interceptions.
• Dalton has a 17-6 record as TCU's starting quarterback.
• Dalton has also excelled of late with his running ability:

Period	Rushes	Yards	Avg. Per Carry	TDs	Avg.Game
First 9 games	56	22	0.4	1	2.4
Last 14 games	155	642	4.1	9	45.9

MVP, MVP

• Andy Dalton has received Most Valuable Player honors in TCU bowl games (2007 Texas, 2008 Poinsettia) each of the last two seasons.

CHASING HISTORY

• In 2008, West Virginia's Pat White became the first starting quarterback in NCAA history to win four bowl games.
• Andy Dalton can match White's mark should TCU win bowl games each of the next two seasons.

• The Frogs have won 23 in a row when rushing for more yards than passing.
• TCU has won 30 straight when rushing for at least 167 yards.
• Under head coach Gary Patterson, TCU is 36-2 with 200 or more yards rushing.
• TCU has won its last 24 contests when attempting 34 or fewer passes.
• The Frogs have won 23 of their last 24 games when throwing for 205 yards or less.
• TCU has won 17 of its last 19 games when completing 18 or less pass attempts.

HORNED FROG OFFENSIVE NOTES

PROTECTING THE BALL

• TCU committed nine turnovers in its 11 wins (0.8 per game) and six turnovers (3.0 per game) in the two losses.

THE FAVORITE TARGET

• Sophomore wide receiver Jimmy Young's team-best 59 receptions nearly doubled the next-closest Frog (Ryan Christian, 30).
• Young fell 12 yards short of just the second 1,000-yard receiving season in TCU history. His 988 yards placed second on the Frogs' single-season chart behind only Reggie Harrell's 1,012 in 2003.
• Included below are the top five single-season receiving yard totals at TCU:

No.	Player	Yards	Year
1.	Reggie Harrell	1,012	2003
2.	Jimmy Young	988	2008
3.	James Maness	871	1984
4.	Stanley Washington	854	1981
5.	Cory Rodgers	836	2004

• Young's 59 receptions tied for the fourth-best single-season total in TCU history and the most since Cory Rodgers had 61 catches in 2004:

No.	Player	Rec.	Year
1.	Kelly Blackwell	64	1991
2.	Kelly Blackwell	64	1990
3.	Cory Rodgers	61	2004
4.	Jimmy Young	59	2008
	Stephen Shipley	59	1990
6.	Reggie Harrell	58	2003
7.	Richard Woodley	56	1990

• Young was fifth in the MWC and 41st nationally in receiving yards per game (76.0) and seventh in receptions (4.5 each contest).
• All five of Young's touchdown receptions last season came in the final six games.
• Young set a TCU single-game record with 226 yards receiving to go with three touchdowns on five catches against Wyoming.
• The 226 yards represented the high game by an MWC player last season and the sixth-best effort in the nation in 2008.
• Young broke the TCU single-game mark of 206 set in 1994 by Jimmy Oliver against Texas Tech. It was just the fourth 200-yard receiving day in TCU history.
• The 226 yards broke Young's previous personal-best of 111 set earlier in the season at Oklahoma.
• Young was the first Frog with four 100-yard receiving games in a season since Cory Rodgers in 2004.

THIRD DOWN AND RED-ZONE SUCCESS

• TCU was eighth nationally with its 51.4 percentage (111-of-216) on third-down conversions.
• The Frogs scored on 58-of-65 red-zone possessions, including 46 touchdowns, to tie for 17th nationally with an 89.2 percent success rate.

GROUND GAME BY COMMITTEE

• TCU's 220.2 yards per game rushing ranked 12th nationally, despite no Frog placing in the top 96 individually.
• Five players averaged between 29.7 and 54.7 yards per game.
• Ten of the top-12 rushers had at least a 4.0 per carry mark.
• TCU's 220.2 yards per game rushing was the highest mark in the eight-year tenure of head coach Gary Patterson and the most since 2000, when LaDainian Tomlinson keyed a Frog ground attack that averaged 275.6 yards per game.

DON'T FORGET THE O

• Four of the five highest-scoring teams in TCU history have come in the last eight seasons since Gary Patterson became head coach.
• Additionally, four of the top five single-season touchdown totals by TCU have been in the last five years.
• Two of TCU's top-three games in total offense have come in the past three seasons.

SIGNAL CALLER DEPTH

• Through the opening seven games, TCU was the nation's only school to have one quarterback (Andy Dalton) leading the team in passing and another (Marcus Jackson) in rushing.
• With Dalton sidelined for two games, Jackson started and led TCU to victories over San Diego State and Colorado State.
• In making just his second collegiate start (Oct. 4), Jackson was the MWC Offensive Player of the Week after totaling 246 yards and three touchdowns in a 41-7 win over the Aztecs.
• Jackson was fifth on TCU with 384 yards rushing. He had two of the Frogs' four 100-yard rushing games (115 yards at SMU; 131 yards against San Diego State).
• His 79-yard touchdown carry at SMU was TCU's longest run from scrimmage since 2001 and the longest scoring play since 2006, when Jackson had an 84-yard TD pass at Baylor.

TEAMWORK

• TCU was tied for second nationally (Florida, Georgia, Troy, Utah) with 17 players scoring a touchdown. Only Miami (Fla.), with 18, had more players reach the end zone.
• TCU tied for ninth in number of freshmen (3; Jai Cavness, Jonathan Jones, Luke Shivers) scoring a TD last season.
• Fifteen Frogs had at least one reception.

THE VERSATILE ONES

• Tailback Ryan Christian was TCU's top receiver out of the backfield with 30 receptions, placing second on the team.
• Wide receiver Jeremy Kerley rushed for a career-high 77 yards on nine carries, including a 16-yard score, on direct snaps against BYU.
• Kerley had three rushing touchdowns while adding 11 receptions. Also the holder on field goals and PATs, he ranked 13th nationally in punt returns (13.9 yards).
• Kerley is 2-of-4 passing for 54 yards in his career.

DRIVE CHART

• The Frogs scored on their opening series in 10 of 13 games last season, totaling seven touchdowns and three field goals.
• In two of the three games it did not score on its first possession, TCU produced points on its second series (a TD versus Stanford and a field goal against San Diego State).
• TCU had 18 touchdown drives of at least 70 yards with 12 of those coming in the last six games.
• TCU tied for 12th nationally with 21 touchdown drives in two minutes or less.
• The Frogs tied for 15th with 20 touchdown drives in five plays or less.

Jimmy Young

HORNED FROG DEFENSIVE NOTES

STINGY D

• TCU led the nation in total defense for the third time in nine seasons. No other team in the country has finished first in defense as many times as TCU in that stretch. The Frogs surrendered just 217.8 yards per game. USC was second at 221.8. All other FBS schools allowed at least 263.5 yards.
• TCU led the nation in run defense at 47.1 yards per game. Alabama was second at 74.1.
• The Frogs (1.7) were the only team in the country allowing less than 2.0 yards per carry. Alabama was second at 2.7.
• TCU (11.3 points per game) was second in scoring defense behind only USC (9.0). Only six of the Frogs' 13 opponents in 2008 scored in double figures.
• TCU led the nation in allowing only 12.1 first downs per game. Virginia Tech was second (13.7).
• The Frogs topped the MWC and were fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense (97.9). Opposing quarterbacks completed 50.3 percent of their passes with 15 interceptions and eight touchdowns.
• TCU was fifth nationally in opponent third-down conversions, allowing only a 28.7 percent success rate.
• Only six teams surpassed 28 yards rushing with just six opponents cracking 200 yards in total offense:

Opponent	Rushing	Passing	Total Offense
New Mexico	56	130	186
Stephen F. Austin	3	140	143
Stanford	71	122	193
SMU	Minus-8	218	210
Oklahoma	25	411	436
San Diego State	Minus-13	98	85
Colorado State	11	188	199
BYU	23	274	297
Wyoming	113	108	221
UNLV	108	67	175
Utah	45	230	275
Air Force	150	11	161
Boise State	28	222	250
Average	47.1	170.7	217.8

POINTS OFF THE BOARD

• TCU allowed more than one offensive touchdown in just one of its 11 victories. In a 44-14 win at UNLV, the Rebels recovered a muffed punt at the Frog 12 to set up their first score. A late fourth-quarter TD drive came after TCU cleared its bench leading 44-7.
• The Frogs surrendered seven points or less in seven of their 11 wins. In a 31-14 victory over Stanford, one of the Cardinal's two TDs came off a blocked punt return for a score.

CONSISTENT FACES

• TCU started the same defensive lineup in 10 of 13 games. Over the final 11 contests, the Frogs had just one change in the defensive starting lineup.
• Starting cornerbacks Rafael Priest and Nick Sanders have started every game the last three seasons.

SACK MASTERS

• TCU's 43 sacks ranked second in the nation behind only Texas (47).
• TCU recorded four sacks at Oklahoma. Sooner quarterbacks were sacked nine times in their other 12 games.
• The Frogs totaled six sacks versus BYU after the Cougars had surrendered two sacks in their opening six contests. BYU allowed 14 sacks in its 12 games outside of TCU.
• Thirteen Frogs recorded a sack in 2008.

STAYING FRESH

• TCU opponents averaged just 56.8 plays from scrimmage. The Frogs had 274 more snaps (21.1 per game).
• Only four teams ran more than 58 plays against TCU.
• San Diego State had an MWC record-low 41 snaps.

DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE

• Ten of TCU's 11 defensive starters last season were All-Mountain West Conference.
• Linebacker Robert Henson, safety Stephen Hodge, defensive end Jerry Hughes and linebacker Jason Phillips were first-team selections.
• Safety Steven Coleman, nose tackle Cody Moore, defensive end Matt Panfil and cornerback Rafael Priest were second-team picks.
• Cornerback Nick Sanders and defensive tackle James Vess were honorable mention choices.

CHASING HISTORY

• Consensus All-American Jerry Hughes set a Mountain West Conference record with his nation-leading 15 sacks. He was two shy of TCU's single-season mark (17, Bo Schobel, 2003).

MAGIC NUMBERS

• TCU is 30-2 in its last 32 games when allowing less than 333 yards of offense. The only two losses in that stretch have been the last two seasons to Utah.
• The Utes had 275 yards in their 13-10 win last season and just 227 in a 27-20 victory in 2007.
• With head coach Gary Patterson, the Frogs are 48-6 when their opponent is at or below 300 yards of total offense.
• TCU is 52-7 under Patterson when holding its opponent under 100 yards rushing.

HORNED FROG DEFENSIVE NOTES

PICK PARTIES

• TCU's 15 interceptions last season were by 10 different players.
• Defensive end Jerry Hughes and cornerback Nick Sanders are the returning interception leaders with two each.
• Sanders had two interceptions against BYU. It was the second two-interception game of his career. He also had two picks at Army in 2006. Sanders was the first Frog with a two-interception game since Rafael Priest in 2007 versus Colorado State.
• TCU had two interception returns for touchdowns in 2008. Hughes went 24 yards versus SMU, while Steven Coleman returned a pick 33 yards for a score against Stephen F. Austin.

SHUTTING THEM DOWN

• Only four times in the last 29 games has TCU seen an opponent score a touchdown on its opening drive.
• TCU has surrendered 14 or less points in 20 of its last 23 wins.

CHECKING ON THE SOONERS

• TCU allowed Oklahoma just 214 yards over the final three quarters after the Sooners totaled 222 in the first quarter.
• Oklahoma's four touchdown passes totaled 218 yards, exactly half of its offense on the night. The Sooners' other 66 plays netted 218 yards (3.3 yards per snap).
• Oklahoma was sacked four times and forced to punt a season-high nine times.

NO FRIEND OF RUNNING BACKS

• During his 100-game tenure as head coach, Gary Patterson has seen just 18 100-yard rushing games by opposing players.
• TCU has shown the ability to slow down top backs from the opposition:

Name	Rush Atts.-Yds.	Season Avg.
Kyle Bell, Colorado State, 2007	7-9	57.6
Rodney Ferguson, New Mexico, 2007	13-28	98.1
Frank Summers, UNLV, 2007	7-15	77.3

Ian Johnson, Boise State, 2008	7-28	58.9

FROGS SHINE IN RED ZONE

• Frog foes reached the red zone just 21 times in 2008, the lowest total in the nation.
• TCU tied for fourth in the NCAA in red-zone defense, allowing opponents to score on only 71.4 percent (15-of-21) of their visits.
• The Frogs surrendered nine touchdowns and six field goals in the red zone.
• In 13 games, TCU opponents ran only 60 plays (4.6 per game) in the red zone.
• In its last 32 games, TCU has allowed 29 TDs on 75 trips to the red zone.

DEFENSE AT ITS BEST

• The 2008 Frogs posted their best year statistically in Gary Patterson's eight seasons:

HORNED FROG SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

FROG SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

A FOUR-PEAT

• With punt returner Jeremy Kerley a first-team selection in 2008, TCU has had the first-team All-Mountain West Conference return specialist in each of its first four seasons in the league (Cory Rodgers, 2005; Brian Bonner, 2006-07).
• Kerley's 13.9-yard average ranked 13th in the nation.
• Aaron Brown was an honorable-mention All-MWC pick as a kick returner. His 29.2 average was fifth in the nation.

Jeremy Kerley

BIG RETURNS

• TCU was fourth in the nation in kickoff returns with its average of 25.7 yards.
• Aaron Brown's 85-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Wyoming marked TCU's first kick return for a score since Cory Rodgers went 100 yards at BYU on Sept. 24, 2005.
• Earlier last season, Brown had kickoff returns of 75 yards at Oklahoma and 56 versus BYU.

MAKING THE STOPS

• Graduated All-Mountain West Conference safety Stephen Hodge had a team-high 26 special teams tackles last season, doubling the total of the next-closest Frog (Daryl Washington, 13).
• Hodge totaled six tackles on special teams against San Diego State. Five of those stops came in the first quarter, including the first four special teams tackles made by the Frogs.

THE WEAPON

• In 11 of 13 games, TCU punter Anson Kelton placed at least half his kicks inside the opponent 20-yard line.
• For the season, 30 of Kelton's 54 punts (55.6 percent) went inside the 20 with just seven touchbacks.
• Kelton had a 41.3-yard average on the season.
• In being named the MWC Special Teams Player of the Week, Kelton put four of seven punts against Colorado State inside the Ram 13. Two kicks landed inside the 3.
• Five of six Kelton boots at Oklahoma, and four of seven versus Stanford, went inside the 20.
• Kelton had a career-long 58-yard punt in the rain and wind of the Stanford game.

A RUN AT LOU GROZA

• Ross Evans was one of 20 semifinalists for the 2008 Lou Groza Award and the lone freshman candidate.
• Evans was 16-of-20 on field goals. He had a streak of 12 consecutive made kicks at one point in the season.
• Evans' 80.0 percentage tied for 14th nationally among kickers with at least 20 attempts.
• On his first collegiate field-goal attempt, Evans hit from 50 yards at New Mexico. It was the sixth-longest made kick by a freshman nationally last season while also tying for the 12th-longest field goal in TCU history.
• Evans' 49 PATs were one shy of equaling TCU's single-season record.
• Evans tied TCU's single-game PAT mark, accomplished four other times, with eight against Stephen F. Austin. Evans missed an opportunity to have sole possession of the mark when a bobbled snap after the eighth of TCU's nine touchdowns was run in for two points by holder Jeremy Kerley.

IN SEARCH OF THE END ZONE

• TCU has not returned a punt for a touchdown in its last 86 games, the eighth-longest current stretch in the nation.
• The streak nearly came to an end in the season opener at New Mexico when Jeremy Kerley returned a fourth-quarter punt 53 yards to the Lobo 4-yard line.

THE COVERAGE GAME

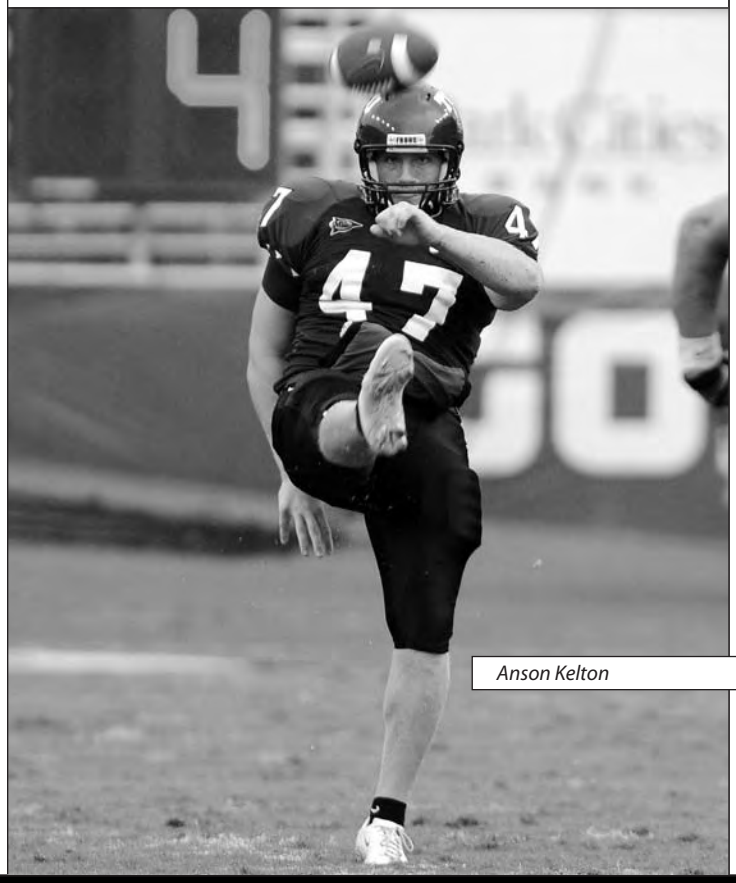
• TCU ranked 25th nationally with its opponents averaging only 19.1 yards on 70 kickoff returns.
• When throwing out 50 yards credited as part of a blocked punt by Stanford, the Frogs allowed just 143 yards (5.7 average) on 25 opponent punt returns.

BLOCK PARTIES

• Antoine Hicks recorded TCU's lone punt block last season in the Wyoming game. The ball went out of the end zone for a safety.
• TCU has seven punt blocks in its last 30 games.
• The Frogs have totaled 17 blocked kicks, including 14 punt blocks, since 2002.
• Daryl Washington blocked three punts (Air Force, Wyoming and Utah) in 2007 to tie Ohio's Joshua Abrams for the national lead.

SECRET WEAPON FOOT

• Quarterback Andy Dalton is 3-for-5 in his TCU career on placing pooch kicks inside the opponent 20-yard line.
• After two successful punts in 2007, Dalton put a third-quarter kick at New Mexico out-of-bounds at the Lobo 4. Another Dalton punt went to the New Mexico 8 but was brought out to the 22 after a kick catching interference call.
• Dalton is averaging 34.4 yards on five career punts.



Anson Kelton

HORNED FROG TIDBITS

BALL CONTROL

• TCU led the nation in time of possession at 35:10, over a full minute more than runner-up Nebraska (34:01) and third-place Virginia Tech (33:00).
• TCU has won 30 of its last 32 games when ahead in that category. The only two losses in that stretch came last season at Oklahoma and Utah.
• In last year's regular-season finale against Air Force and its run-oriented attack, the Frogs held a 38:32 to 21:28 edge in time of possession.
• TCU had the ball for 36:07 compared to 23:53 for Boise State in the Poinsettia Bowl.
• TCU had a 2008 season-best 43:29 in possession time against San Diego State.

BEATING THE RANKED

• TCU had two wins over top-10 teams in 2008. The Frogs defeated then-No. 8 BYU, 32-7, on Oct. 16 before a 17-16 victory over No. 9 Boise State in the Poinsettia Bowl.
• It was the first time since 1961, when victories were posted over No. 1 Texas (6-0) and No. 8 Kansas (17-16), that TCU defeated two top-10 teams in the same season.
• The win over BYU marked the highest-ranked opponent TCU beat since a 17-10 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma in 2005. That was also the Frogs' previous win over a top-10 team.
• TCU's 25-point win over BYU marked the largest margin of victory over a top-10 team in school history. The previous best was a 14-0 win over No. 6 Texas in 1946.
• The Frogs defeated a top-10 team at home for the first time since a 17-9 victory over No. 9 Texas A&M in 1965.

CLOSE CALLS

• Dating back to the 2003 campaign, TCU is 20-8 in its last 28 games decided by seven points or less.

PLAYING AHEAD

• In 10 of its 13 games, TCU opened with a lead of at least 10-0:

16-0 at New Mexico
28-0 vs. Stephen F. Austin
14-0 vs. Stanford
34-0 at SMU
20-0 vs. San Diego State
26-0 vs. BYU
14-0 vs. Wyoming
14-0 at UNLV
10-0 at Utah
10-0 vs. Air Force

• TCU did not trail in nine of its 11 wins.
• The Frogs were behind Colorado State 7-0 after the Rams' opening drive of the game. TCU rallied for a 13-7 win.
• TCU was down 10-0 to Boise State in the opening 7:15 before a 17-16 victory.

QUICK STARTS

• The Frogs have scored in the first quarter in 38 of their last 48 games.
• TCU has tallied first in 23 of its last 34 contests and 62 of its last 88 games (70.5 percent) dating back to 2002.
• The Frogs have allowed just 27 first-half touchdowns in their last 34 games.
• In the first half of those 34 contests, TCU has outscored its opponents 629-228 (an average margin of 19-7).

MAGIC NUMBER 17

• Under head coach Gary Patterson, TCU is 52-1 when allowing 17 points or less.
• The only loss was last year's 13-10 decision at Utah. It snapped the Frogs' 65-game overall winning streak when holding the opponent to 17 or fewer points. The streak began after a 17-7 loss at Northwestern on Sept. 11, 1999.

THE TURNOVER STORY

• TCU tied for 10th in the nation in turnover margin at +1.0 per game (+13 overall).
• Over the last four seasons, TCU is 35-1 when ahead (29-1) or even (6-0) in turnover margin and 6-9 when on the negative side.
• Since the start of the 2005 season, TCU is 41-10. In seven of the 10 defeats, the Frogs have been minus-2 or worse in turnover margin. TCU won at San Diego State in 2007 despite being minus-3 for the game.
• The Frogs have posted at least one takeaway in 47 of their last 54 contests.

TCU BY THE NUMBERS

8
Scoring drives of at least 80 yards by the Frogs in 2008.

17
TCU's longest scoring drive last season in number of plays (77 yards, 7:59, resulting in a TD at UNLV).

22
TCU scoring drives of at least 10 plays last season, including three versus BYU.

23
Consecutive wins by TCU when rushing for more yards than passing.

24
Consecutive wins by TCU when attempting 34 or fewer passes.

30
Consecutive wins for the Frogs when rushing for at least 167 yards.

67
Points by TCU against Stephen F. Austin in last year's home opener, one shy of the Frogs' single-game scoring record.

94
Yards on TCU's longest scoring drive of the season (13 plays, 4:18, resulting in a TD versus BYU).

307
TCU first downs, nearly double the number by its opponents (157).

2009 SPRING OUTLOOK

OFFENSE
TCU returns a strong nucleus from an offensive unit that set single-season school records last year for points scored (437) and touchdowns (56). The Horned Frogs were second in the Mountain West Conference and 12th nationally in team rushing at 220.2 yards per game. It was TCU's highest rushing average since LaDainian Tomlinson's senior year in 2000 (275.6). TCU was also second in the league and 24th in the country in total offense (421.3 yards). Andy Dalton will be in his third year as the starting quarterback. TCU welcomes back six of its top-seven rushers from a year ago, all but one wide receiver and three starters on the offensive line.

QUARTERBACK
Returning Starter: Andy Dalton
Returning Lettermen: Marcus Jackson
Redshirts: Yogi Gallegos
Starter Lost: N/A
Lettermen Lost: N/A
Newcomers: Casey Pachall

In 2008, West Virginia's Pat White became the first starting quarterback in NCAA history to win four bowl games. After just two seasons, TCU's Andy Dalton (6-3, 215, Jr.) is halfway there.

Andy Dalton

In addition to leading the Frogs to victories in the 2007 Texas Bowl and 2008 Poinsettia Bowl, Dalton earned Most Valuable Player honors in both games.

With the likes of Sam Baugh and Davey O'Brien, TCU has a proud quarterback tradition. In just two seasons, Dalton has already won 19 games as a starting quarterback and is rapidly climbing the statistical charts in the Frogs' record book. He is already second in career completions (404) and third in passing yards (4,701).

A native of Katy, Texas, Dalton showed tremendous progress in his sophomore campaign. He had just five interceptions in 307 pass attempts. In one five-game stretch, Dalton had a career-long streak of 108 passes without a pick.

Dalton completed 59.3 percent of his attempts on the season for 2,242 yards and 11 touchdowns. He was also very effective running the ball, placing third on TCU with 432 yards, while his eight rushing touchdowns ranked second.

With Marcus Jackson (6-1, 216, Sr.) moving to safety, Yogi Gallegos (6-1, 192, RFr.) enters the spring in the No. 2 position on the depth chart.

Like Dalton in 2006, Gallegos was the Frogs' emergency No. 3 quarterback last season. He was able to maintain his redshirt while also picking up valuable experience as a member of the Frogs' travel squad for all road games.

As a senior at Irving (Texas) High School, Gallegos completed 60.5 percent of his passes for 2,401 yards and 15 touchdowns.

Casey Pachall (6-5, 194, Fr.), a four-star recruit who enrolled at TCU in January, will participate in spring practice and is third on the depth chart.

Rated by Rivals.com as the ninth-best dual-threat quarterback in the nation, Pachall turned down scholarship offers from the likes of Florida, Notre Dame and Michigan to come to TCU.

Pachall passed for 2,808 yards and 31 touchdowns while adding 512 yards rushing as an all-state performer his senior year at Brownwood (Texas) High School.

RUNNING BACK
Returning Starters: Ryan Christian, Joseph Turner
Returning Lettermen: Jai Cavness, Luke Shivers, Chris Smith
Redshirts: Edward Wesley
Starters Lost: Aaron Brown
Lettermen Lost: Justin Watts

Despite the loss of standout Aaron Brown to graduation, TCU returns a full stable of running backs in 2009.

Ryan Christian (5-11, 180, Sr.), one of the more versatile Frogs, placed second on TCU with 30 receptions out of the backfield last season. He tied a career-high with six catches for 53 yards in the 17-16 Poinsettia Bowl victory over Boise State.

The Aledo, Texas, native was the Frogs' fourth-leading rusher with 386 yards and four touchdowns on a 4.2 per carry mark. He ran for a career-best 82 yards while adding four receptions in the 31-14 win versus Stanford.

Christian, who also contributes on kickoff returns, was third on the Frogs in all-purpose yards (841).

Joseph Turner (6-1, 225, Sr.), last year's top rusher with 577 yards and 11 TDs, will be limited in the spring as he recovers from injury.

Turner gives the Frogs a physical presence at tailback. His 17-yard touchdown run with 8:51 to play provided the go-ahead score in the Poinsettia Bowl. It was part of his season-high 83 yards that night.

Turner is a proven commodity for TCU. As a sophomore in 2007, he had a 226-yard, four TD performance in a win at San Diego State.

Joseph Turner

Veteran Chris Smith (5-11, 231, Sr.) adds valuable depth along with Jai Cavness (5-8, 175, So.).

Smith is a three-year letterman, while Cavness was impressive in several late-game performances a year ago. He topped the 50-yard mark twice as he placed seventh on TCU with 134 yards on the season, including a pair of scoring runs.

Ed Wesley (5-9, 185, RFr.) redshirted in his first season on campus and will compete for playing time.

A local product from Irving, Texas, Wesley immediately caught the eye of teammates and coaches during a strong preseason camp. He was named TCU's 2008 Scout Team Offensive Most Valuable Player.

Luke Shivers (6-0, 220, So.) will handle the fullback duties in addition to working with the tight ends.

Shivers, a converted linebacker, had two carries last season with both resulting in 3-yard touchdown runs.

WIDE RECEIVER
Returning Starters: Bart Johnson, Jeremy Kerley, Jimmy Young
Returning Lettermen: Alonzo Adams, Curtis Clay, Antoine Hicks, Jonathan Jones, Tyler Luttrell
Redshirts: N/A
Starters Lost: Walter Bryant
Lettermen Lost: N/A
Newcomers: Josh Boyce

TCU returns all but one wide receiver from last year's group and still has no seniors at the position.

Jimmy Young (6-1, 204, Jr.), who fell just 12 yards short of a 1,000-yard season in 2008, headlines the list of returnees.

A junior from Monroe, La., Young topped TCU and ranked among the Mountain West Conference leaders with 59 receptions for 988 yards. The 59 grabs nearly doubled the next-closest Frog (Ryan Christian, 30) and were the fourth-best single-season total in TCU history. The 988 yards ranked second all-time at TCU.

Young's breakout campaign was highlighted in a 54-7 win over Wyoming. He had three touchdown receptions (60, 55 and 39 yards) and totaled 226 yards receiving, the top mark in the MWC and the sixth-best total nationally in 2008. Young's longest reception in the game – 65 yards – did not actually go for a score. Young recorded four 100-yard games on the season.

Bart Johnson

Bart Johnson (6-1, 190, Jr.) made five starts last season and provides the Frogs a sure-handed receiver. He placed fifth on TCU with 15 receptions, averaging 13.7 yards per catch.

Jeremy Kerley (5-10, 192, Jr.) and Antoine Hicks (6-2, 193, So.) both have big-play capability and bring excitement to the Frogs' offense.

Kerley, who had 11 receptions on the year, was instrumental in the 32-7 win over BYU. Out of the "Wild Frog" formation, he rushed for a career-high 77 yards on nine carries, including a 16-yard touchdown. He was the Frogs' sixth-leading rusher for the season with 143 yards.

Kerley was also the Mountain West Conference's first-team return specialist, ranking 13th nationally in punt returns with a 13.9-yard average.

Hicks was one of three true freshmen to see action for TCU in 2008. He came on strong at the close of the season, as five of his seven receptions on the year were in the final four games.

Curtis Clay (6-0, 180, Jr.) and Alonzo Adams (6-0, 190, Jr.) both saw action in all 13 contests last year and add valuable depth. Clay totaled a career-best nine receptions.

Jonathan Jones (6-4, 197, So.) and Tyler Luttrell (6-1, 195, Jr.) are other returning lettermen who will compete for playing time.

Josh Boyce (5-11, 175, Fr.) is a newcomer who will take part in spring practice after graduating early from Copperas Cove (Texas) High School. He totaled 42 receptions for 837 yards as a senior. Since arriving at TCU in time for the spring semester, Boyce has been impressive in the Frogs' offseason program.

Evan Frosch

TIGHT END
Returning Starter: N/A
Returning Lettermen: Logan Brock, Evan Frosch
Redshirts: Walker Dille, Corey Fuller
Starters Lost: Shae Reagan
Lettermen Lost: N/A

Like the wide receivers, the tight end position does not have a senior on the depth chart but still has key players returning with valuable game experience.

Evan Frosch (6-4, 260, Jr.) enters the spring in a first-team role. He started five games in 2008 and is a two-year letterman. Frosch reached the end zone twice on his 10 receptions last season. All 15 of his career catches have come in TCU victories.

Logan Brock (6-3, 253, So.) lettered in his first season of competition for the Frogs and is the older brother of incoming freshman linebacker Tanner Brock.

Walker Dille (6-3, 235, RFr.) and Corey Fuller (6-5, 239, RFr.) both redshirted last year and figure prominently in the mix for playing time this fall.

In addition to his role at fullback, Luke Shivers (6-0, 220, So.) will also see action at tight end.

2009 SPRING OUTLOOK

OFFENSIVE LINE
Returning Starters: OT Marcus Cannon, OG Kyle Dooley, OT Marshall Newhouse
Returning Lettermen: C Tyler Marrou, OT Jeff Olson, OT Nic Richmond, C Spencer Thompson, OG Josh Vernon
Redshirts: OG Blaize Foltz, C James Fry, OT Trevius Jones, OG Zach Roth
Starters Lost: OG Giles Montgomery, C Blake Schlueter
Lettermen Lost: OG Preston Phillips, OT Heath Raetz

Marshall Newhouse

Keyed by returning All-Mountain West Conference tackles Marshall Newhouse (6-3, 317, Sr.) and Marcus Cannon (6-5, 350, Jr.), TCU returns three starters on its offensive line.

Newhouse has started every game at left tackle the last two seasons. He is a cousin of former NFL fullback Robert Newhouse.

Cannon, the largest member of the Frogs, made 11 starts a year ago and was dominant at right tackle in the 17-16 Poinsettia Bowl victory over Boise State.

Nic Richmond (6-8, 322, Sr.), who started all 13 games at right tackle in 2007, provides veteran insurance on the line. When Cannon was sidelined for two games last season, Richmond stepped in and played well in victories over BYU and UNLV.

Jeff Olson (6-4, 282, So.) and Trevius Jones (6-3, 293, RFr.) add depth at tackle. Olson lettered in a reserve role, while Jones was a redshirt in his first season on campus.

Left guard Kyle Dooley (6-3, 310, So.), who came to TCU as a walk-on, cracked the starting lineup last season and made four starts before a season-ending injury.

Josh Vernon (6-2, 295, Jr.) enters the spring first on the depth chart at right guard. He was locked in a preseason duel a year ago for a starting job on the left side.

Blaize Foltz (6-4, 310, RFr.) and Zach Roth (6-5, 310, Jr.) are both in second-team positions at guard after redshirting last season. Roth came to TCU after playing two years at Garden City (Kan.) Community College.

Jake Kirkpatrick (6-3, 305, Jr.) is slated to replace three-time All-MWC selection Blake Schlueter at center.

Kirkpatrick has lettered in a reserve role the last two campaigns. He did not play football until his senior year at Robert E. Lee High School in Tyler, Texas.

Spencer Thompson (6-4, 270, So.), James Fry (6-3, 269, RFr.) and Tyler Marrou (6-5, 268, Sr.) provide depth at center and will compete for playing time.

DEFENSE
Led by 2008 consensus All-American Jerry Hughes, TCU returns five starters and several key reserves from last year's top-ranked defense in the nation. The Frogs allowed just 217.8 yards per game to lead the country in defense for the third time in the last nine campaigns. No other team in the nation has been No. 1 in that category as many times as TCU in that stretch. The Frogs were also tops in the country last season in run defense (47.1 yards) while placing second in scoring defense (11.3 points) and fourth in pass efficiency defense (97.9). Hughes, who led the nation with 15 sacks and six forced fumbles, will be supported by returning All-MWC corners Rafael Priest and Nick Sanders as well as standout linebacker Daryl Washington and safety Tejay Johnson.

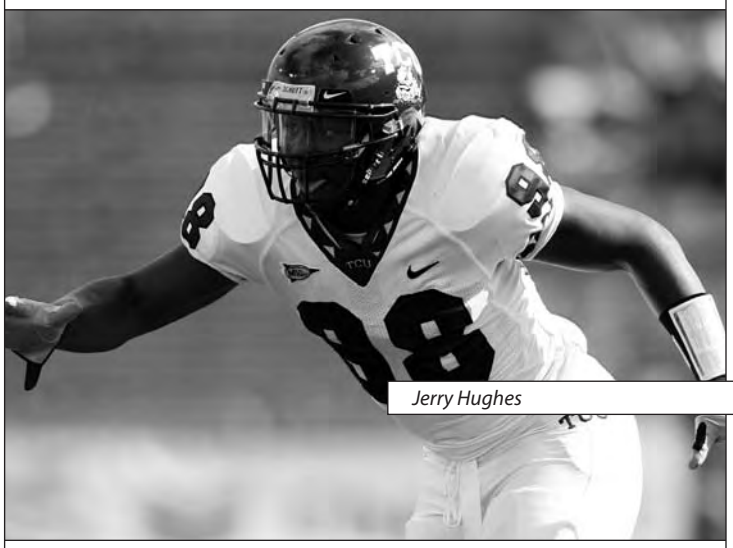
DEFENSIVE LINE
Returning Starters: DE Jerry Hughes
Returning Lettermen: DE Braylon Broughton, DT Wayne Daniels, DE Ross Forrest, NT Cory Grant, NT Kelly Griffin, DE Clarence Leatch
Redshirts: DT Jeremy Coleman
Starters Lost: NT Cody Moore, DE Matt Panfil, DT James Vess
Lettermen Lost: DT John Fonua

Defensive end Jerry Hughes (6-3, 257, Sr.) was a consensus All-American last season and a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Ted Hendricks Award.

A senior from Sugar Land, Texas, Hughes was a tailback and kick returner in high school. He started just one game his first two seasons at TCU before exploding on the scene last fall.

Hughes led the nation with 15 sacks and six forced fumbles. He also ranked in the top 10 in tackles for loss (19.5) and fumble recoveries (three). Hughes added two interceptions, including one returned for a touchdown.

In the Frogs' 32-7 win over BYU, Hughes recorded four sacks and forced two fumbles to receive multiple National Defensive Player of the Week honors. His final sack of the season came in the waning minutes of the Poinsettia Bowl to help preserve the 17-16 win over Boise State.



Jerry Hughes

While Hughes is locked in on the left side, Ross Forrest (6-4, 242, So.) and Braylon Broughton (6-6, 248, So.) will battle for the starting job at right end.

2009 SPRING OUTLOOK

Forrest came to TCU as a walk-on. His impressive preseason camp enabled him to play in 11 games as a true freshman. Broughton was the 2008 Preseason Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year.

Veteran Clarence Leatch (6-4, 245, Jr.) adds depth at defensive end and will vie for playing time.

Kelly Griffin (6-1, 295, Jr.) enters the spring as the starter at nose tackle. In 2007, he became the only true freshman to start in the eight-year tenure of TCU coach Gary Patterson. Griffin started all 13 games for the Frogs that campaign.

Pushing Griffin will be fellow juniors Cory Grant (6-2, 303, Jr.) and Henry Niutei (6-4, 300, Jr.). Niutei was TCU's 2008 Scout Team Defensive Most Valuable Player.

After spending his first three years at TCU at end, Wayne Daniels (6-2, 250, Jr.) will move to defensive tackle this spring. He's penciled in as a first-team performer.

Jeremy Coleman (6-2, 285, RFr.) is a very promising young player who will compete for playing time. He was a redshirt in his first fall on campus.

LINEBACKER
Returning Starters: Daryl Washington
Returning Lettermen: Tank Carder, Kris Gardner
Redshirts: Greg Burks
Starters Lost: Robert Henson, Jason Phillips
Lettermen Lost: N/A
Newcomers: Tanner Brock

Lost in the shadows of graduated All-MWC selections Jason Phillips and Robert Henson, Daryl Washington (6-3, 228, Sr.) will contend for postseason honors this fall.

Arguably the top all-around athlete on the team, Washington placed fourth on TCU last season with 63 tackles.

The Irving, Texas, native was outstanding in the 17-16 Poinsettia Bowl victory over Boise State, recording six tackles, including one for loss, and three pass breakups. He was the MWC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts in a win at Colorado State.

In 2007, Washington tied for the national lead with three punt blocks.

Converted tight end Kris Gardner (6-1, 235, So.) and Greg Burks (6-1, 205, RFr.) will compete for playing time behind Washington. Gardner saw most of his 2008 action on special teams, while Burks was a redshirt.

Tank Carder (6-2, 232, So.) will enter the spring in a first-team position at middle linebacker. With Phillips sidelined by injury against Stephen F. Austin, Carder was able to gain valuable game experience that night. He lettered in a reserve role while also contributing on special teams.

After a stellar career at Copperas Cove (Texas) High School that saw him total 693 tackles as a three-time first-team all-state selection, Tanner Brock (6-3, 217, Fr.) enrolled early at TCU and will take part in spring practice. He will immediately push Carder at the middle linebacker spot.

CORNERBACK
Returning Starters: Rafael Priest, Nick Sanders
Returning Lettermen: Alex Ibiloye, Greg McCoy, Jason Teague
Redshirts: N/A
Starters Lost: N/A
Lettermen Lost: N/A

Three years ago, Rafael Priest (5-10, 181, Sr.) and Nick Sanders (5-10, 174, Sr.) entered spring practice as redshirt freshmen and the biggest question marks on the TCU defense.

Having started every game the last three seasons, Priest and Sanders are now cornerstones of the Frogs' secondary and All-MWC selections.

Priest was ranked by CollegeFootballNews.com as one of the top 20 cornerbacks in the nation. He totaled 10 pass breakups last year and has 29 over the past three seasons.

Rafael Priest

The Dallas native recorded three interceptions in 2007, when he was named second-team All-MWC.

Sanders had two picks in TCU's 32-7 win over BYU as well as two sacks in a 13-7 victory at Colorado State. His team-best 12 pass breakups enabled him to finish second in the MWC with an average of 1.1 passes defended per game.

Greg McCoy (5-10, 181, So.) is the fastest member of the Frogs with a 4.32 time in the 40. His first career interception came in the 54-7 win over Wyoming. McCoy lettered in a reserve role.

After being sidelined by injury during preseason camp, Jason Teague (6-2, 185, Jr.) was able to get on the field during the second half of the campaign. Originally an LSU signee, he could have an increased role this fall.

Alex Ibiloye (6-0, 183, Jr.) is a veteran who adds depth at cornerback. He has lettered as a special teams standout the last two seasons.

SAFETY
Returning Starters: Tejay Johnson
Returning Lettermen: Sir Demarco Bledsoe, Tekerrein Cuba, Johnny Fobbs, Corderra Hunter, Colin Jones
Redshirts: Chris Scott
Starters Lost: Steven Coleman, Stephen Hodge
Lettermen Lost: Andy Burrell

The TCU safety position will have a new look this spring as Tejay Johnson (6-1, 212, Jr.) is the lone returning starter, and he'll be utilized in a different role.

2009 SPRING OUTLOOK

Johnson, who placed sixth on the Frogs with 47 tackles last season, will shift from weak safety to free safety. He closed last year with six solo stops in the Poinsettia Bowl win over Boise State.

Tejay Johnson

Johnny Fobbs (6-1, 203, So.) and Chris Scott (5-10, 185, RFr.) provide depth behind Johnson.

Fobbs played in eight games last season and made his collegiate debut with two tackles in the season-opening 26-3 win at New Mexico. Scott, from Baton Rouge, La., was a redshirt in his first season on campus.

Sir Demarco Bledsoe (6-2, 195, So.) at strong safety and Corderra Hunter (6-2, 220, Sr.) at weak safety enter the spring in No. 1 positions on the depth chart.

Bledsoe had a key sack in the final two minutes at Colorado State to help preserve the Frogs' 13-7 win. Hunter is a three-year letterman who has primarily contributed on special teams. He totaled a season-best three tackles in the 31-14 victory over Stanford.

Colin Jones (6-0, 205, Jr.), a standout running back during his days at Bridgeport (Texas) High School, will add depth at strong safety. Jones had a sack in last year's 26-3 win at New Mexico.

After being at quarterback his first four years in the program, Marcus Jackson (6-1, 216, Sr.) will move to weak safety this spring in an attempt to get his athleticism on the field. Jackson started two games at quarterback last season and led TCU to victories over San Diego State and Colorado State.

Also competing for playing time at weak safety is Tekerrein Cuba (6-4, 210, So.).

Cuba made his collegiate debut with a starting assignment in last year's win at New Mexico. He totaled four tackles, including one for loss, against the Lobos. Cuba will look to battle back from an injury suffered in the final practice before the Frogs departed for San Diego and the Poinsettia Bowl.

Special teams have always been a strength for TCU.

In 2008, Jeremy Kerley (5-10, 192, Jr.) gave the Frogs their fourth consecutive first-team All-Mountain West Conference return specialist, covering every year TCU has been in the league. Kerley ranked 13th nationally in punt returns with a 13.9-yard average.

A former prep quarterback, Kerley also serves as the holder on field goals and PATs.

Ryan Christian (5-11, 188, Sr.) will enter the spring as the primary kickoff returner. He averaged 22.3 yards on six attempts last season with a long of 41.

After placing 55.6 percent (30-of-54) of his punts inside the opponent 20 with just seven touchbacks, Anson Kelton (6-4, 260, So.) earned All-Mountain West Conference honors in his first season of competition.

Kelton was the MWC Special Teams Player of the Week in a 13-7 win at Colorado State. Four of his seven punts were downed inside the Ram 13-yard line, including two inside the 3.

Kelton averaged 41.3 yards per attempt on the season.

Ross Evans (5-11, 180, So.) was the lone freshman last year to be a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top placekicker. He was 16-of-20 on field goals, including a season-long 50-yard effort at New Mexico on his first collegiate attempt. Evans also had 49 PATs, one shy of a TCU single-season record.

Evans will also handle the Frogs' kickoff duties.

Clint Gresham (6-3, 225, Sr.) returns as the short and long snapper. After arriving at TCU as a walk-on transfer from Oklahoma, he has since been placed on scholarship.

Gresham is one of the more unsung players at TCU and has been singled out by Frog head coach Gary Patterson for his excellent snaps.

Since taking over the helm of the Horned Frogs in December 2000, Gary Patterson has become synonymous with TCU football.

Patterson has led TCU to five 10-win seasons in the last seven years, including four 11-win campaigns in the past six seasons. No other coach in TCU history has more than two 10-win campaigns.

The dean of Mountain West Conference coaches, Patterson guided TCU to an 11-2 record in 2008 and a No. 7 ranking in the final AP and USA Today polls. It was the Frogs' highest season-ending appearance in the polls since 1959. Included in the win total were victories over then-undefeated, top-10 teams BYU and Boise State. It was the first time since 1961 that TCU beat two top-10 opponents in the same season.

Patterson's 73-27 (.730) record is the best mark of any TCU head coach after 100 games. Dutch Meyer, coach of the 1935 and 1938 national championship teams, is second (.665, 64-31-5, 1934-40). Patterson's 73 wins are third on the Frogs' career victory list and just one behind Abe Martin (74, 1953-66) for second place.

Patterson's .730 winning percentage is second among TCU coaches with more than 20 games under their belt and 10th among active coaches in the Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly called Division I-A).

The Frogs have won four conference titles with Patterson on staff in addition to posting six of the school's 10 10-win seasons. He was TCU's defensive coordinator from 1998-00.

During his 11 years on campus, Patterson has seen TCU make 10 bowl appearances. With a 17-16 victory over No. 9 Boise State in in the 2008 Poinsettia Bowl, Patterson has led the Frogs to four straight bowl victories for the first time in school history. TCU is one of just seven schools nationally to have a current bowl winning streak of at least four in a row.

TCU is 7-3 in bowl games with Patterson on its coaching staff and 5-3 with him as head coach. Prior to Patterson's arrival on campus in 1998, the Frogs had just four bowl wins in their history.

In 2008, Patterson was one of 15 semifinalists for the George Munger National Coach of the Year Award by the Maxwell Football Club. He was also named to the Paul "Bear" Bryant Watch List for the College Football Coach of the Year.

TCU led the nation in total defense (217.8 yards per game) in 2008 for the third time in nine seasons. No other school in the country has finished first in that category as many times as TCU in that span. The Frogs were also first in run defense (47.1 yards), fewest first downs allowed per game (12.1) and time of possession (35:10). TCU was second in scoring defense (11.3 points per game).

The Frogs are 11-3 in their last 14 games against teams from leagues with automatic BCS bids, including a 5-2 mark versus the Big 12 the past four seasons.

The Frogs were 11th in the final BCS standings in 2008. TCU has appeared in the BCS standings 28 times, trailing only Boise State (34) for the most among schools from a non-automatic qualifying conference.

In eight seasons as a head coach, Patterson has coached 93 All-Conference selections, six All-Americans, 10 Freshman All-Americans and one Academic All-American.

In three of its first four seasons in the Mountain West, TCU has set the pace on the all-conference teams. The Frogs had 18 selections in 2005 and 2008, 14 in 2006 and 11 in 2007.

In his tenure as TCU's head coach, Patterson has had 16 players drafted with a total of 36 in NFL camps.

Patterson became the fastest TCU coach to reach 50 victories (70 games) with a 27-21 win at New Mexico on Nov. 11, 2006.

Patterson was the 2002 Conference USA and 2005 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He was a 2003 finalist for Eddie Robinson and Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year honors. He also appeared on the 2006 Bobby Dodd Watch List.

An 11-2 record in 2006 included wins over Big 12 opponents Baylor and Texas Tech as well as a 37-7 victory over Northern Illinois in the Poinsettia Bowl.

The Frogs' defense ranked second nationally in run defense (60.8 yards per game) and total defense (234.9 yards per game) while placing third in scoring defense

HEAD COACH GARY PATTERSON

(12.3 points per game). The 2007 defensive unit allowed 323.6 yards per game for the fourth-lowest total during Patterson's time as head coach.

TCU won its last eight games in 2006 for the fourth-best winning streak at the time in the nation, trailing only Boise State (13), BYU (10) and Wisconsin (9).

The Frogs' eight consecutive wins were by an average margin of 24.4 points. During that stretch, the TCU defense allowed per game marks of 10.8 points, 59.6 yards rushing and 185.1 in total offense.

In 2005, Patterson led the Frogs to the Mountain West Conference championship in their first season of league play.

It was also TCU's first outright conference championship since 1958. The Frogs posted an 11-1 record for just the fourth 11-win season in school history and the second in three years.

TCU also recorded its first undefeated league mark (8-0) dating back to 1938.

The Frogs opened and closed the 2005 season with victories over Big 12 teams. Following a 27-24 EV1.net Houston Bowl win over Iowa State, Patterson saw TCU climb to ninth in the USA Today poll and 11th in the Associated Press poll. It was TCU's highest season-ending ranking since 1959.

TCU, picked to finish sixth in 2005 preseason MWC polls, opened the campaign with a 17-10 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma. It was TCU's first win against an opponent ranked that high since a 6-0 victory over No. 1 Texas in 1961.

Patterson's success in 2005 was achieved while playing a total of 21 redshirt or true freshmen, tying for fourth nationally in that category.

The 2005 Frog defense led the nation in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). The offense set a single-season school record with 50 touchdowns while its 398 points scored ranked second all-time at TCU.

Setting the pace nationally in defensive categories is nothing new for Patterson. His teams led the country in defense during the 2000 and 2002 campaigns. In 2002, the Frogs allowed only 64.8 rushing yards per game - ranking first in that category as well.

TCU has been no stranger to the post-season in the Patterson era. The Frogs have emerged victorious seven times in their run of 10 bowl games in 11 seasons, including a 17-3 win over MWC champion Colorado State in the 2002 AXA Liberty Bowl.

In his first full season as head coach with the Frogs in 2001, Patterson was one of only eight coaches with no previous Division I head coaching experience to lead their teams to bowl appearances. He proceeded to take the Frogs to a bowl in each of his first three years.

Patterson's 10-2 record and conference championship in the 2002 season earned him Conference USA Coach of the Year accolades. The Frogs finished the season ranked 22nd in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll and 23rd in the Associated Press poll.

Eleven of Patterson's 73 career wins came in the Horned Frogs' 2003 campaign, when TCU climbed as high as sixth in the BCS rankings - the highest ranking at that time for a school from a non-automatic qualifying conference.

Under Patterson's guidance, the Frogs got off to a 10-0 start after opening the season ranked 25th in the Associated Press poll. They finished the season 11-2 and ranked in the top 25 for the second year in a row - the first time that had happened at TCU since the 1950s. His leadership of the 2003 squad made him a finalist for both the Eddie Robinson and Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year honors. He was also named an assistant coach for the Hula Bowl.

In 2004, the Frogs finished in the top 20 in the nation in scoring offense, passing offense and total offense. The Patterson chapter of TCU football, however, has been dominated by a tradition of defense. Since 1999, the Frogs have been ranked in the top five nationally in total defense four times.

Patterson amassed 18 years as an assistant coach, including three with the Frogs, before taking the torch from Dennis Franchione prior to the 2000 GMAC Mobile Alabama Bowl.

In 1998, Patterson's first season at TCU, the Horned Frogs scored a school-record six defensive touchdowns, intercepted 12 passes and allowed only 19.6 points per game - the fewest points per game in over 30 years. It was accomplished by a team that was 1-10 the previous season.

Patterson's 1999 TCU defense ended the season ranked fifth in the country in total defense. The Frogs posted two shutouts and led the Western Athletic Conference in every major defensive category.

In 2000, the Frogs allowed only 245.0 total yards and 9.6 points per game, ranking first in the nation in both categories. Five of Patterson's players earned first-team all-conference recognition and he was a finalist for the Frank Broyles National Assistant Coach of the Year award.

Prior to his arrival in Fort Worth, Patterson spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at New Mexico. The Lobos collected 22 total takeaways and three defensive touchdowns in 1996. The next year, in Patterson style, New Mexico improved their total takeaways to 29, including 16 interceptions.

A true defensive specialist, Patterson had a similar impact at Navy. In just one season as the Midshipmen's secondary coach in 1995, he helped elevate the defense in the national rankings. Navy finished 18th in total defense, 17th in scoring defense and 28th in pass defense efficiency.

Patterson's defensive acumen dates back to his own playing days at Kansas State, where he played strong safety and outside linebacker for the Wildcats in 1980 and 1981.

He served as a graduate assistant in 1982 and received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983. He took the linebacker coaching position at Tennessee Tech while earning a master's degree in educational administration in 1984.

Patterson has been part of 13 bowl staffs, including one each with Kansas State, Utah State and New Mexico. The other 10 have come at TCU. Aside from being an accomplished Division I head coach, Patterson is also a skilled guitar player. On several occasions, Patterson has entertained TCU fans with his guitar skills at pep rallies around the Fort Worth area.

A native of Rozel, Kansas, Patterson is married to the former Kelsey Hayes. He has three sons: Josh, Cade and Blake.

JARRETT ANDERSON

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ RUNNING BACKS

9TH YEAR AT TCU
NEW MEXICO, 1993

After coming to TCU as a graduate assistant, Jarrett Anderson is in his 12th year overall with the Horned Frogs.

In February 2009, Anderson was promoted to co-offensive coordinator. He also became the running backs coach after serving as wide receivers coach the previous eight seasons.

In 2008, sophomore Jimmy Young became the first TCU wide receiver to be named All-Mountain West Conference in the Frogs' four years in the league. Young had 59 receptions for 988 yards.

Under Anderson's tutelage, three TCU receivers in the last six years have been drafted by NFL teams.

Cory Rodgers was a fourth-round pick by Green Bay in 2006, while Adrian Madise and LaTarence Dunbar were selected in the fifth and sixth rounds in 2003 by Denver and Atlanta, respectively. All three finished their careers in the top 10 of various TCU receiving categories.

Reggie Harrell, who signed as a free agent with Dallas, became the school's first 1,000-yard receiver in 2003 with the Horned Frogs.

During his three-year career, Rodgers tied Mike Renfro's career TCU mark of 17 receiving touchdowns.

Both Harrell and Rodgers rank among the top 10 in school history in career receptions and yards while earning all-conference recognition.

In 2006, Quentily Harmon closed his career as TCU's ninth-leading receiver with 111 catches. In addition, Michael DePriest was signed as a free-agent in 2007 by Indianapolis.

Prior to assuming his current duties, Anderson served on the TCU coaching staff as a graduate assistant from 1998-00, working primarily with the Frogs' offensive line.

Anderson spent one season (1997) as an assistant coach at Tyler Junior College, where he worked with the running backs and receivers. He began his collegiate playing career at Tyler before transferring to New Mexico. He lettered for the Lobos in both 1992 and 1993.

Anderson graduated from New Mexico in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in university studies and earned a master's degree in TCU's MLA program.

Anderson and his wife, Lisa, have two sons: Aidan and Eli.

DICK BUMPAS

DEF. COORDINATOR/DEF. LINE

6TH YEAR AT TCU
ARKANSAS, 1973

Dick Bumpas, in his sixth year at TCU, was a 2008 finalist for the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach.

TCU led the nation in total defense (217.8 yards per game), run defense (47.1 ypg.) and fewest first downs allowed per game (12.1) while placing second in scoring defense (11.3 points) and sacks (43).

Bumpas mentored defensive end Jerry Hughes into consensus All-America honors and being a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Ted Hendricks Award. Hughes had never played on defense until arriving at TCU.

All four of TCU's starting defensive linemen in 2008 were named All-MWC. In addition to Hughes being a first-team selection, seniors Cody Moore and defensive end Matt Panfil enjoyed their best seasons and were both second-team picks. Defensive tackle James Vess was an honorable-mention choice.

In 2007, Bumpas was ranked as the seventh-best defensive coach in the nation.

The 2006 TCU defense ranked second nationally in run defense (60.8 yards per game) and total defense (234.9 ypg.) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game).

TCU led the nation in 2005 in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). The Frogs topped the Mountain West Conference with 41 sacks and allowed just three touchdowns in their final three games, keeping their opponent out of the end zone for 10 quarters from Oct. 29 at San Diego State to the Dec. 31 EV1.net Houston Bowl.

In a coaching career that has spanned 30 years, Bumpas has won championships in four different conferences and coached at all three service academies.

A native of Fort Smith, Ark., Bumpas received three varsity letters and was a captain for the Razorbacks. He was named SWC Defensive Player of the Year in 1970, earning consensus All-America honors at defensive tackle. He received a Bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas in 1973. He went on to play tight end and linebacker professionally for the Memphis Southmen in the World Football League and the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League.

Bumpas was a 2006 inductee into the University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor. He is married to the former Gloria Surratt.

RUSTY BURNS

WIDE RECEIVERS
1ST YEAR AT TCU
SPRINGFIELD, 1978

Rusty Burns joined the TCU coaching staff as wide receivers coach in February 2009.

Burns most recently spent four seasons (2004-07) as the offensive coordinator at SMU. The Mustangs set a school record with 29 touchdown passes in 2006, while their 325 points scored ranked third all-time in SMU history.

Burns has also been an offensive coordinator at Cincinnati (2002-03), Wyoming (1999-01), Memphis (1996-98) and Connecticut (1980-88).

At Cincinnati, Burns directed a record-setting offensive attack in 2002 that helped lead the Bearcats to the Conference USA championship. Cincinnati set school marks for passing yards (3,649 yards), total offense (5,565 yards) and points (409). The Bearcats led C-USA in passing (260.6) and total offense (397.5) per game.

It was Burns' second stint at Cincinnati. He was the Bearcats' quarterbacks coach from 1989-91. Burns also served three seasons (1992-94) as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech.

In his final year at Wyoming, Burns had the most improved offense in the Mountain West Conference.

Burns is a 1978 graduate of Springfield College, where he played quarterback. He also has a master's degree from Springfield. His first coaching position came at his alma mater as he served two seasons as offensive coordinator upon his graduation.

Burns and his wife, Debra, have two daughters: Kelly and Kirsten.

JUSTIN FUENTE

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ QUARTERBACKS
3ND YEAR AT TCU
MURRAY STATE, 1999

Justin Fuente joined the TCU football coaching staff in February 2007 as running backs coach and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator in February 2009. As part of his new duties, Fuente moves from running backs to quarterbacks coach.

The Horned Frogs defined running back by committee in 2008. TCU ranked 12th nationally in rushing despite not having a player in the top-96 individually. TCU's 220.2 yards per game rushing was its highest mark since 2000, when LaDainian Tomlinson keyed a Frog ground attack that averaged 275.6 per game.

Fuente came to TCU after spending the previous six seasons as quarterbacks coach at Illinois State. His final three years saw him double as the Redbirds' offensive coordinator.

Fuente played two seasons (1996-97) at Oklahoma under former TCU quarterbacks coach Dick Winder. At the time, Winder was the Sooners' offensive coordinator. Fuente set an Oklahoma freshman record with 11 touchdown passes. He then transferred to Murray State for his final two years of eligibility.

Fuente set 11 school records at Murray State, including total offense and passing yards in a game and season. He was the Ohio Valley Conference Offensive Player of the Year and a finalist for the Walter Payton Award, given annually to the nation's top player in Division I-AA.

Under Fuente's direction, Illinois State ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense in 2005 and 2006. The Redbirds placed eighth in 2006 with an average of 397.5 yards per game after ranking fifth in both total offense (477.6 yards) and scoring (39.2 points) in 2005.

Fuente coached Redbird quarterback Luke Drone to first-team All-Gateway Conference honors as he led the league in passing (227.8 yards) and total offense (231.6 yards). Running back Pierre Rembert set an Illinois State single-season record while ranking sixth nationally in rushing with 1,743 yards (134.1 per game).

Following his collegiate career, Fuente played professionally with the Oklahoma Wranglers in the Arena League. A 1999 graduate of Murray State, Fuente is a native of Tulsa, Okla.

Fuente and his wife, Jenny, have a daughter: Cecilia Mae.

CHAD GLASGOW

SAFETIES
9TH YEAR AT TCU
OKLAHOMA STATE, 1995

Chad Glasgow, a member of Gary Patterson's first staff at TCU, is in his ninth year as the Horned Frogs' safeties coach.

With Stephen Hodge being a first-team All-Mountain West Conference selection and Steven Coleman a second-team pick in 2008, Glasgow has now coached 11 all-conference selections at safety for TCU.

In 2007, Hodge and David Roach earned All-MWC honors. Roach and Brian Bonner signed 2008 free-agent contracts with the New Orleans Saints and San Diego Çhargers, respectively.

In 2006, Marvin White was first-team All-MWC and later a fourth-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals. Bonner was a second-team selection. White and Jeremy Modkins were All-MWC in 2005.

Since arriving at TCU, Glasgow also tutored all-conference safeties Kenneth Hilliard, a free-agent signee with the Buffalo Bills, and Marvin Godbolt, who inked a professional contract in the Canadian Football League.

Glasgow coached safeties, including 2000 Southland Conference Player of the Year C.J. Carroll, at Southwest Texas State from 1998-00.

Prior to his stint at Southwest Texas State, Glasgow spent one year at Illinois State as the linebackers coach. He mentored a pair of all-conference selections during his time in Normal, Ill.

Glasgow also had coaching stops as a graduate assistant at both Oklahoma State (1994-95) under Bob Simmons and New Mexico (1996) with Dennis Franchione. Patterson was the Lobos' defensive coordinator that season.

A three-year letterwinner, Glasgow played linebacker at Oklahoma State. He earned a bachelor's degree from OSU in business administration in 1995.

CLAY JENNINGS

CORNERBACKS
2ND YEAR AT TCU
NORTH TEXAS, 1996

Clay Jennings joined the TCU football staff as cornerbacks coach in January 2008.

In his first season with the Horned Frogs, Jennings coached Rafael Priest into second-team All-Mountain West Conference honors while Nick Sanders was an honorable-mention pick.

Jennings, who has coached five current NFL defensive backs, came to the Horned Frogs after serving as the cornerbacks coach at Baylor in 2007.

Jennings worked two seasons (2005-06) as safeties coach at Houston. He helped the Cougars to back-to-back bowl appearances and the 2006 Conference USA championship. In 2006, Cougars' free safety Will Gulley earned Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year honors while Brandon Brinkley was named to the league's all-freshman squad.

In his first season at Houston, Jennings saw Rocky Schwartz earn Conference USA third-team all-league honors and Kenneth Fontennette be named an honorable-mention Freshman All-American by The Sporting News.

Prior to his two-year stint at Houston, Jennings spent two seasons (2003-04) as the defensive backs coach at Louisiana-Lafayette, where he helped the Ragin' Cajuns to a No. 11 national ranking in pass defense. At Louisiana-Lafayette, Jennings tutored current NFL players Antwain Spann (New England Patriots), C.C. Brown (Houston Texans) and Michael Adams (Arizona Cardinals).

Jennings also worked two years (2001-02) as secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Sam Houston State. He helped the Bearkats to a share of the 2001 Southland Conference championship and the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. At SHSU, Jennings coached All-American and Buck Buchanan Award finalist Keith Davis, who just completed his fifth season with the Dallas Cowboys.

Jennings also coached the secondary at Southern Arkansas (2000), Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa (1999) and Morehouse College in Atlanta (1998). At SAU, Jennings mentored Jordan Babineaux of the Seattle Seahawks. At Morningside, Jennings coached first-team All-American Matt Walker.

A four-year letterwinner (1992-95) as a defensive lineman and special teams standout at North Texas, Jennings was a member of the Mean Green's 1994 Southland Conference championship team and the school's first NCAA Division I-A squad in 1995. He began his coaching career as a student assistant (1996) and then graduate assistant (1997) at North Texas before moving on to Morehouse.

A 1992 graduate of Waco's La Vega High School and a 1996 North Texas alumnus (bachelor's of science in kinesiology), Jennings and his wife, Belinda, have two children: son Kirby and daughter Kenzie.

DAN SHARP

TIGHT ENDS/SPECIAL TEAMS
9TH YEAR AT TCU
TCU, 1985

One of the more popular players to ever don the Purple and White, Dan Sharp is in his ninth year during his second stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater. He doubles as the tight ends and special teams coach.

A 2005 inductee into the TCU Lettermen's Hall of Fame, Sharp returned to the Horned Frogs' staff in 2001 as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. He previously coached for seven seasons at TCU before heading to Tulsa in 1998.

In 2008, Sharp mentored freshmen Anson Kelton and Ross Evans as they handled the punter and placekicker duties, respectively, for TCU.

Kelton earned All-Mountain West Conference honors as 30 of his 54 punts were placed inside the opponent 20 with just seven touchbacks. He had a 41.3 average. Evans made 16-of-20 field goals, including a 50-yard effort on his first collegiate attempt, and was the only freshman included among the 20 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top placekicker.

Sharp coached three-time All-Mountain West Conference selection Chris Manfredini to a 47-of-54 mark on field goals in three seasons (2005-07). Additionally, punter Derek Wash was an honorable-mention All-MWC choice in 2007 with a 42.5 average.

TCU's special teams have also produced four consecutive first-team All-MWC return specialists in Jeremy Kerley (2008), Brian Bonner (2007, 2006) and Cory Rodgers (2005).

Placekicker Nick Browne and punter Joey Biasatti were semifinalists for the Lou Groza and Ray Guy Awards, respectively, during the 2002 campaign. Browne earned All-America honors and was the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Year in 2003.

Under Sharp's leadership, Matt Schobel was the second pick in the third round of the 2002 National Football League draft and the 67th player selected overall.

In 2004, Cody McCarty garnered first-team all-league honors.

Sharp previously coached at TCU (1991-97) under both Jim Wacker and Pat Sullivan. He mentored the tight ends for five years and handled the defensive ends for two seasons. Before joining the TCU staff on a full-time basis, Sharp served as a graduate assistant under Wacker.

Sharp was a tight end on TCU's 1984 team which finished the regular season with an 8-3 record in earning a trip to the Bluebonnet Bowl. He had a key touchdown reception in a 32-31 win at Arkansas, the Frogs' first victory in Fayetteville in 29 years.

In addition to providing some outstanding blocking for TCU's vaunted running attack, Sharp earned All-Southwest Conference honors in 1984 as he caught 42 passes for 596 yards and seven touchdowns. Sharp spent two seasons in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons before returning to his alma mater in 1988.

He received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from TCU in 1985 and his master's degree in liberal arts in 1992.

Sharp and his wife, Cindy, both natives of Boerne, Texas, are the parents of two daughters: Alexandra and Andrea.

TONY TADEMY

LINEBACKERS
5TH YEAR AT TCU
LOUISIANA TECH, 1983

Tony Tademy joined the Horned Frog football staff in June 2005.

Tademy has coached at least two All-Mountain West Conference selections in each of his first four years.

In 2008, TCU starting linebackers Jason Phillips and Robert Henson were both first-team All-MWC. Phillips became the first defensive player in MWC history to be a first- or second-team all-conference selection in four consecutive seasons. Henson was an honorable-mention pick his first three years before becoming a first-team choice as a senior.

Phillips was named by Dave Campbell's Texas Football as the state's Best Linebacker in 2007, while David Hawthorne, a three-year starter (2005-07), signed a free-agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks.

In 2005, Tademy's first season, TCU's top three linebackers featured a pair of redshirt freshmen (Phillips and Henson) and a sophomore (Hawthorne). The Frogs were still able to post an 11-1 record with a defensive unit that led the nation in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). Phillips became the first freshman defensive player in MWC history to be named first- or second-team all-conference. He was also a Freshman All-American.

Prior to arriving at TCU, Tademy spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator at McKinney (Texas) High School.

Tademy has been in the coaching profession since earning his bachelor's degree in general studies from Louisiana Tech in 1983. While an undergrad, he played linebacker and helped the Bulldogs to a pair of Independence Bowl appearances.

Tademy's first full-time assistant coaching stint came at VMI from 1985 to 1986. He served as the linebackers and defensive line coach, working with current TCU assistant head coach and offensive line coach Eddie Williamson.

Tademy coached the 1987 season at his alma mater, serving as the inside linebackers coach. He later became the offensive line and specialists coach at Howard University in Washington, D.C. He also coached the linebackers and was the recruiting coordinator in his three-year stint at Howard.

After one year as the defensive line coach at Northeast Louisiana University and a short stay at Suitland (Md.) High School, Tademy spent three seasons (1994-96) at the University of Houston where he worked with the defensive ends under coach Kim Helton and helped the Cougars to the 1996 Liberty Bowl.

Tademy returned to the high school ranks as an assistant coach at Texas City (Texas) High School from 1997-98, before taking over as the defensive coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette from 1999-01. He spent one season as the defensive coordinator at Blinn College before becoming the defensive coordinator at McKinney in 2003.

A Jacksonville, Ark., native, Tademy and his wife, Maria, have two sons: A.J. and Victor.

EDDIE WILLIAMSON

ASST. HEAD COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE
9TH YEAR AT TCU
DAVIDSON, 1974

A veteran of the collegiate coaching ranks, Eddie Williamson is in his ninth season at TCU as the offensive line coach. He was given the additional title of assistant head coach in 2002.

Williamson has coached 11 All-Mountain West Conference selections over the last four seasons.

In 2008, center Blake Schlueter was a first-round All-MWC pick while offensive tackles Marshall Newhouse and Marcus Cannon earned second-team and honorable-mention honors, respectively. They helped TCU lead the nation in time of possession (35:10) while also setting school records for points scored (437) and touchdowns (56).

Schlueter was a second-team All-MWC performer in 2007 with Newhouse an honorable-mention choice.

Tackle Herb Taylor was first-team All-MWC in 2005 and 2006 before the Kansas City Chiefs made him a sixth-round draft pick.

Michael Toudouze, also a tackle, was first-team All-MWC in 2005 and a fifth-round selection of the Indianapolis Colts.

With four new starters on the offensive line in 2006, TCU allowed just 13 sacks. It was the lowest total in the MWC and tied for the sixth-best mark nationally. In 2005, with three new starters, the Frogs surrendered the league's second-fewest sacks.

With Williamson's troops paving the way, the Frogs have produced a pair of 1,000-yard rushers and a Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year in the last eight seasons.

Williamson came to Fort Worth from Wake Forest, where he served as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. He joined the WFU staff in January 2000, after previously working as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Texas Southern.

A native of Pendleton, S.C., Williamson was a standout linebacker for three seasons at Davidson (1971-73). He graduated in 1974 and went on to earn his master's degree from Furman in 1976, where he served as a graduate assistant.

Williamson and his wife, Patty, have three children: Eddie III, Carrie Beth and Tricia.

DON SOMMER

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING
9TH YEAR AT TCU
UTEP, 1987

Don Sommer is in his ninth year as TCU's head strength and conditioning coach after arriving on campus in January 2001. He was named the 2008 National Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by footballscoop.com.

In his capacity, Sommer is responsible for the overall direction, design and implementation of strength and conditioning programs for all sports at TCU.

In the 2005-06 athletics season, TCU led the nation with five football players and a total of 10 student-athletes receiving All-America honors from the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

Sommer came to TCU after serving in a similar capacity at the University of Missouri for two years. He had been part of the Tiger program since 1989, serving first as a graduate assistant for two years before assuming the assistant strength and conditioning coaching post in 1991.

Sommer was one of 10 individuals to receive the prestigious certification of "Master Strength & Conditioning Coach" at the 2003 Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA) national conference. He joined the existing 26 Master Strength & Conditioning Coaches, bringing the total number of MSCCs in the world to 36 at the time of his certification.

Sommer is a graduate of the University of Texas-El Paso with a bachelor's degree in education. He was a four-year letterman and starter for the Miners' football squad before playing professionally with the Buffalo Bills and Indianapolis Colts.

Sommer returned to the classroom following his playing career and earned his master's degree in health education from Missouri.

Sommer and his wife, Cindy, have two children: Dayne and Kaylin.

MIKE SINQUEFIELD

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
9TH YEAR, 15TH OVERALL AT TCU
LSU, 1992

Now in his 15th year at TCU, Mike Sinquefield is in his ninth season as the director of football operations.

Sinquefield's broad range of responsibilities include office management and administration, game day responsibilities, liaison with various athletic and university departments, team travel and recruiting visitations.

Sinquefield previously served as the athletics equipment manager at TCU. In that role, he was responsible for maintaining and requisitioning athletic equipment while outfitting the Horned Frog student-athletes with various athletic equipment.

Prior to his arrival in Fort Worth, Sinquefield spent the previous three years in a similar capacity at East Carolina University in Greenville, N.C.

As an undergraduate, Sinquefield served as a student equipment manager and student athletic trainer at LSU. He earned his bachelor of general studies degree from LSU in 1992.

Sinquefield is a native of LaPlace, La. He and his wife, Alisa, have a son, Kaleb.

CHRIS GILLERT

ASST. DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
3RD YEAR AT TCU
UT TYLER, 2000

Chris Gillert is in his third year with TCU and second season as assistant director of operations. Gillert previously served as a graduate assistant coach for the Frog offense in 2007. He originally came to TCU in January 2007 as the graduate assistant for video.

Gillert helps coordinate team travel and organizes and maintains the recruiting database. He also serves as a liason to high schools and junior colleges for recruiting purposes and serves as the pro scout contact.

Gillert previously served two years as the wide receivers coach at Trinity Valley (Texas) Community College. He helped lead the Cardinals to 2005 conference, region and Pilgrim's Pride Bowl championships. Trinity Valley topped the Southwest Junior College Football Conference that season in total offense with 386 yards per game.

In 2005, Gillert coached the top two and four of the conference's top 10 receivers.

Prior to his tenure at Trinity Valley, Gillert worked two years as the wide receivers coach at Canton (Texas) High School.

A 2000 graduate of UT Tyler, Gillert was a two-year starter at tight end for Abilene Christian (1994-95).

TCU	26
NEW MEXICO	3

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) - Andy Dalton ran for two touchdowns as TCU went on to a 26-3 win in the season-opener for both teams.

The Horned Frogs scored on their first three possessions and needed a span of just over four minutes to build a 16-0 lead on the Lobos in the Mountain West Conference game.

Dalton scored on runs of 11 and 4 yards, the second TD set up by Jeremy Kerley's 53-yard punt return midway through the fourth quarter.

The Lobos only points came from a 28-yard field goal kick by Aho with 10:48 left in the third quarter.

A short punt by first year Lobo kicker Adam Miller gave the Horned Frogs the ball on the New Mexico 30 and set up a four-play drive that ended with Dalton's 11-yard scoring run.

The Lobos got off one play on their ensuing possession as Donovan Porterie's pass hit TCU safety Steven Coleman in the chest at the New Mexico 35 and Coleman returned it to the 9. Halfback Joseph Turner scored on second down from the 2.

TCU also got field goals of 50 and 39 yards from Ross Evans.

Evans missed a chance to extend TCU's 16-0 lead when he missed a 20-yard field goal attempt with 39 seconds left in the first half. That drive was set up by Porterie's fumble near midfield that was recovered by defensive end Jerry Hughes.

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN	7
TCU	67

FORT WORTH (AP) - Joseph Turner ran for three touchdowns as TCU scored on its first five possessions on the way to a 67-7 victory over Stephen F. Austin in its highest-scoring game in 76 years.

Turner had a 12-yard TD run and two 4-yard scores for the Frogs (2-0), whose 67 points were one short of the school record set against Austin College in 1932. TCU led 42-7 at halftime in its home opener.

Stephen F. Austin (1-1) was held to only 143 total yards, including three yards on 17 rushing attempts.

In its home opener seven years ago against Northwestern State, another team from the lower-tier Football Championship Subdivision, TCU was upset 27-24 in overtime. The Frogs weren't going to let that happen again.

Andy Dalton was 11 of 13 passing for 131 yards and ran for an 11-yard TD. He completed all eight of his passes on TCU's first four scoring drives.

TCU rolled up 525 total yards, 320 on the ground, led by Ryan Christian's 67 yards on 11 carries.

STANFORD	14
TCU	31

FORT WORTH (AP) - Ryan Christian scored the go-ahead touchdown and Steven Coleman made a key interception to help TCU beat Stanford 31-14 in a game moved up six hours because of Hurricane Ike.

Christian, who rushed for 82 yards on 19 carries, gave TCU the lead for good on a 1-yard scoring run with six minutes left in the third.

Stanford appeared to tie the game early in the fourth on Doug Baldwin's 49-yard punt return for a touchdown. Officials reviewed the play and determined Baldwin stepped out of bounds at the TCU 13.

Three plays later, Coleman intercepted Tavita Pritchard's pass in the end zone to thwart Stanford's comeback attempt.

Kickoff was moved up to noon because of the hurricane that hit the Texas coast early Saturday. Despite the earlier start time, it began raining harder in the second half and winds from the outer edge of the storm gusted to more than 30 mph in the fourth quarter.

Richard Sherman returned a blocked punt 21 yards for a touchdown as Stanford rallied from a two-touchdown deficit to tie the game at 14 before halftime.

The Horned Frogs took the lead on their second possession in the second half. Their nine-play, 51-yard drive was capped by Christian's short run.

TCU quarterback Andy Dalton, who capped the scoring with a 10-yard run, passed for 145 yards and rushed for 91 more.

DALLAS (AP) - Joseph Turner ran for 67 yards and a pair of 4-yard touchdowns as TCU defeated SMU for the second consecutive season, 48-7.

The Horned Frogs outgained SMU 498-210 in total yards, including a 271-minus-8 advantage in rushing yardage.

TCU converted two turnovers into touchdowns less than six minutes into the game. Safety Steven Coleman recovered a fumble at the SMU 39-yard line on the second play of the game. Five plays later, Turner scored on a 4-yard run.

TCU extended its lead to 14-0 after defensive end Jerry Hughes intercepted a screen pass and returned it 24 yards for a touchdown with 9:15 left in the quarter.

Turner scored on another 4-yard run on the Horned Frogs' first possession of the second half. Later in the third quarter, following an interception by nose tackle Cody Moore, quarterback Andy Dalton scored on a 5-yard run to give TCU a 34-0 lead.

Dalton was 16-of-25 for 210 yards before sitting out the final quarter. Backup quarterback Marcus Jackson led all rushers with 115 yards on seven attempts, including a 79-yard touchdown run late in the fourth.

SMU quarterback Bo Levi Mitchell completed 20-of-36 passes for 218 yards with two interceptions and one touchdown. Mustangs receiver Emmanuel Sanders led all receivers with six receptions and 62 yards.

NORMAN, Okla. - TCU was unable to slow down No. 2 Oklahoma's big playmakers in the final non-conference battle of the season, as the 23rd-ranked Frogs fell to the Sooners, 35-10, in front of 85,158 fans at Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. The capacity crowd marked the third-largest audience to see the Frogs play.

Despite topping the Sooners in time of possession and holding Oklahoma to only 25 yards on the ground, TCU surrendered 436 total yards of offense, in addition to 66 yards on a dozen penalties, and suffered four turnovers.

Sophomore quarterback Andy Dalton went 16-for-39 for 212 passing yards, while also gaining 32 yards on the ground. Junior tailback Joseph Turner had 54 rushing yards with the Frogs' lone touchdown. Sophomore wideout Jimmy Young topped all Frog receivers with a career-high 111 yards on six receptions.

Oklahoma quarterback Sam Bradford went 19-for-34 with 281 of his personal-best 411 passing yards coming in the first half. Bradford connected for four touchdown completions, despite being sacked four times. Sooner receiver Manuel Johnson had a career-best 206 yards on five receptions with three touchdowns.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Junior quarterback Marcus Jackson rushed for 131 yards and two touchdowns in his first start this season to help TCU defeat San Diego State 41-7.

Getting the start after Andy Dalton injured his right knee in a loss to top-ranked Oklahoma last weekend, Jackson went 10-of-19 for 115 yards and had scoring runs of 9 and 3 yards.

Jackson threw a touchdown pass just before halftime that gave TCU (5-1, 2-0 Mountain West) a 20-0 lead.

San Diego State had only 85 yards of offense and four first downs. In their last trip to Fort Worth, the Aztecs had just 87 total yards in a 52-0 loss two years ago.

Ross Evans kicked field goals of 25 and 42 yards to give TCU a 6-0 lead early in the second quarter.

Ryan Christian's 10-yard TD run extended the lead to 13-0, and Jackson threw a 3-yard TD pass to Shae Reagan just before halftime to put the Horned Frogs on top 20-0.

TCU's Aaron Brown rushed for 66 yards and Joseph Turner added 63 as the Horned Frogs had a season-high 383 yards on the ground.

The Aztecs had minus-13 yards rushing against TCU, which came in leading the nation in run defense.

TCU	13
COLORADO STATE	7

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) - The top defense in the nation was slow to arrive but quick to recover, leading TCU past Colorado State 13-7 on a chilly afternoon at Hughes Stadium.

The Rams marched right down the field for a touchdown on their first possession, then could hardly find any holes to run through or yards to gain after the catch - when they did manage to hold onto the ball.

After its only airplane trip in a two-month span, the Horned Frogs looked like they had jet lag on CSU's opening drive, a nine-play, 78-yard march that included 45 yards on the ground, highlighted by Gartrell Johnson's 4-yard rumble into the end zone.

But the Rams managed just 15 yards rushing on their four subsequent first-half drives and the Horned Frogs took a 13-7 lead into the locker room after CSU's Kory Sperry and Rashaun Greer dropped long touchdown passes from quarterback Billy Farris.

The Rams went to backup quarterback Klay Kubiak in the third quarter but they couldn't get close to the end zone in a seven second-half possessions.

They had minus-49 yards rushing in the second half and finished with just 11 yards on 28 carries.

The Horned Frogs came into the game leading the nation in run defense, allowing just 22.3 yards a game, total defense (208.8) and fewest first downs per game (10). They were also tops in time of possession (37:09).

And after that first drive, they lived up to their reputation.

Aaron Brown scored on a 6-yard run and Joseph Turner punched it in from 3 yards out for TCU. The kick following Brown's TD was blocked.

One play before Brown's TD, cornerback Nick Oppenneer was hanging on quarterback Marcus Jackson's back but couldn't bring him down and Jackson somehow completed a 5-yard pass to his tight end on fourth-and-1 from the 11.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Andy Dalton threw two touchdown passes in his return to the lineup and the Horned Frogs sacked Max Hall six times in a 32-7 victory that snapped the ninth-ranked Cougars' 16-game winning streak that was the longest in major college football.

The Frogs scored on their first three drives, twice after turnovers by Hall, for a 17-0 lead -- scoring as many points in 16 minutes as BYU had allowed its last 16 quarters. That four-game stretch for the Cougars included consecutive lopsided shutouts of UCLA and Wyoming.

Dalton, who missed the last two games with a knee injury, threw a 25-yard touchdown to Jimmy Young on his first pass. He added a 12-yarder to Walter Bryant just before halftime, the receiver making a nifty grab and getting a foot down in the back corner of the end zone -- a catch confirmed by replay -- for a 23-0 lead.

Dalton finished 12-of-19 for 170 yards and Kerley ran nine times for 77 yards. Jerry Hughes had four sacks for TCU and forced two fumbles.

On BYU's opening drive of the game, Daryl Washington dropped a possible interception near the 50 with a wide-open field to the end zone ahead of him. But two plays later, Hughes hit Hall from behind, stripping the ball and TCU recovered at the Cougars 40.

Kerley scored on a 16-yard run, avoiding a BYU defender just past the line and then zigzagging through the middle of the field virtually untouched for a 14-0 lead, ending a 72-yard drive on which he also had 24-yard run.

TCU led 17-0 on Ross Evans' 21-yard field goal a play after an apparent interception was overturned by replay. That drive included a 21-yard run by Kerley.

Joseph Turner, who ran 19 times for 70 yards, scored on a 5-yard run at the end of the third quarter for the final touchdown.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Jimmy Young made sure TCU avoided a letdown after an eventful week.

Young had a school-record 226 yards receiving and caught three touchdown passes to help No. 15 TCU defeat Wyoming 54-7.

Young had scoring catches of 60, 55 and 39 yards, and hauled in a 65-yarder to set up another touchdown as TCU won their fourth straight game.

Jimmy Oliver had the TCU record with 206 yards receiving against Texas Tech in 1994. Young is just the second player in school history to have a 200-yard receiving game.

Young's big day helped the Horned Frogs pile up 444 yards of offense.

Andy Dalton completed 16-of-22 passes for 334 yards and he threw four touchdown passes. The Horned Frogs, who led 38-7 after three quarters and rested most of their starters in the fourth, have outscored their opponents 140-28 during their winning streak.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) - Andy Dalton threw three touchdown passes to lead No. 12 TCU past UNLV 44-14.

Dalton completed 16-of-29 for 151 yards and rushed for 52 yards on nine carries. He has nine touchdown passes in the last three games since coming back from a two-game absence because of injury.

The Frogs ran for 259 yards, led by Aaron Brown's 60.

UNLV managed only 108 against the No. 1 run defense in the country. TCU was allowing 10.4 points per game and 1.2 yards per rush coming into the game.

TCU's first drive lasted 17 plays capped by a Dalton 1-yard pass to Justin Watts with 5:21 left in the first quarter.

The Horned Frogs then went up 14-0 thanks in part to Robert Henson's first-quarter interception of Omar Clayton's pass. Henson's second pick of the season at the Rebels' 34, led to Luke Shiver's 3-yard touchdown run up the middle with 3:09 left in the first quarter

The Frogs went up 24-7 at halftime after Dalton found Evan Frosch wide open on the left side from 4 yards with :30 left in the half.

Brown's 23-yard run down the left side added to the lead in third quarter, and Jimmy Young caught Dalton's last touchdown pass from 13 yards with 2:38 left in the third quarter.

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) - Brian Johnson threw a 9-yard touchdown pass to Freddie Brown with 48 seconds left to cap an 80-yard drive that kept Utah's BCS hopes alive with a 13-10 victory over TCU.

The Utes, who improved to 10-0 for the second time in school history, were swarmed at midfield by the fans who made Rice-Eccles Stadium shake when Johnson rallied Utah to its first touchdown and saved the Utes' postseason hopes.

Johnson threw for 230 yards for the Utes, who recovered on defense after allowing TCU to gain 202 yards in the first quarter.

The Horned Frogs missed two field goal attempts in the fourth quarter either of which would have put TCU up by seven.

Ross Evans bounced one kick off the left upright, then with 2:48 left he was wide right on a 35-yard attempt. Utah got the ball back on the 20 and Johnson led the Utes' comeback.

TCU nearly had the drive stopped, but on fourth-and-5 Johnson completed an 11 yard pass to Brown to the Frogs' 15. Two plays later, Johnson found Brown on a slant for the winning score.

Robert Johnson sealed it with an interception in the final seconds and Utah won despite getting outgained 416-275.

Aaron Brown ran for 106 yards on 15 carries and Andy Dalton passed for 251 yards, but the Frogs hurt themselves with penalties and untimely breakdowns. TCU was called for 11 penalties and allowed two sacks on third downs that took the Frogs out of field goal range twice.

AIR FORCE	10
No. 15 TCU	44

FORT WORTH (AP) - Andy Dalton threw two touchdown passes and ran for two more scores and the No. 15 Horned Frogs' defense mostly smothered Air Force's usually potent rushing attack to win their regular season finale 44-10.

Air Force was held to 150 yards rushing - 111 of that coming on only two runs. The Falcons were averaging 279.7 yards per game, fourth-best among FBS teams.

In Gary Patterson's 99th game as the Frogs' coach, they drove 60 yards on six plays on the opening possession and led for good after Luke Shivers scored on a 3-yard run only 2:22 into the game.

The Frogs gained more than 10 yards on eight plays in the first quarter, and led 10-0 after Ross Evans' 32-yard field goal.

Dalton, who finished 21-of-27 for 321 yards, had an 8-yard keeper for a touchdown and threw a 22-yard pass to Bart Johnson to give TCU a 24-3 halftime lead. Dalton hit Walter Bryant for another 22-yard score on the Frogs' first second-half possession, then ran 7 yards for a TD.

Air Force got its only touchdown in the fourth quarter when Jared Tew busted through the middle of the line into a wide-open gap for a 57-yard run.

SAN DIEGO (AP) -- TCU's Joseph Turner dove into the end zone for the winning touchdown, and LaDainian Tomlinson went nuts on the sideline.

It was a good night to be a Horned Frog, current and past.

Turner's 17-yard run midway through the fourth quarter gave the No. 11 Horned Frogs their first lead of the night, which they preserved for a 17-16 victory over No. 9 and previously undefeated Boise State in the Poinsettia Bowl.

Boise State (12-1) was trying to finish 13-0 for the second time in three seasons. The Broncos took a 10-0 lead on Ian Johnson's 20-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter, but their high-scoring offense bogged down against TCU's fast, aggressive defense.

TCU (11-2) piled up yards if not points until finally wearing down the Broncos' defense in the fourth quarter. The Horned Frogs moved 80 yards in 10 plays on the winning drive, with Turner finishing it off by shedding a tackle inside the 5-yard line and diving into the end zone for a 17-13 lead.

Tomlinson, the former TCU standout in his eighth season with the San Diego Chargers, jumped in celebration and pumped his fist near the TCU bench.

There wouldn't be a crazy, victorious finish for Johnson and the Broncos as there was two years ago in the memorable, highly entertaining overtime win over Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl.

After Turner's TD, Boise State got to the TCU 14 before having to settle for Kyle Brotzman's 33-yard field goal to pull to 17-16.

The Broncos got the ball back with 6 seconds left on their 33 and tried to lateral the ball after a catch, but Jeremy Childs' desperation flip was grabbed by TCU's Matt Panfil.

TCU outgained Boise State 472 yards to 250.

BSU came in averaging 39 points and 456 yards, one of the benefits of dominating the Western Athletic Conference.

Johnson scored on a 20-yard run midway through the first quarter. It was his 58th career rushing TD, breaking former San Diego State star Marshall Faulk's WAC record and giving the Broncos a 10-0 lead.

Broncos quarterback Kellen Moore faked a sweep handoff to Childs, then handed to Johnson, who broke outside and found an open field. Officials brought to the ball to the sideline for Johnson to keep.

The Broncos needed the cushion, because TCU's fast, aggressive defense finally clamped down.

Johnson is best known as scoring the winning 2-point conversion against Oklahoma on a "Statue of Liberty" play, then proposing to his cheerleader girlfriend moments later.

Johnson's wife, Chrissy, spoke with Tomlinson on the sideline after doing a TV interview during the first quarter.

Boise State defensive end Bryon Hout intercepted Andy Dalton midway through the second quarter, and his 62-yard return included a nice spin move to get away from one TCU player and a stiff arm against another Horned Frog. Hout was a running back in high school.

Hout returned the ball to the TCU 11, but the Broncos had to settle for Brotzman's 24-yard field goal and a 13-0 lead.

TCU finally scored on Aaron Brown's 16-yard run just before halftime.

Brown had 102 yards on 14 carries while Turner had 83 yards on 16 rushes.
